2018 Harry L. Tomlinson Award SELECTION CRITERIA

CARH's Harry L. Tomlinson Award honors meritorious achievement by a public servant who is working to provide or manage affordable housing. The award commemorates West Virginia's Rural Rental Housing Chief, Harry L. Tomlinson, who received the first award posthumously in 1983.

CRITERIA

The selection criteria will be:

- The candidate has encouraged and promoted cooperation between the funding sources (government or others) and housing providers.
- The candidate exhibits creativity and commitment to affordable and rural rental housing.
- The candidate has the ability to work within required regulations and policies, while effectively meeting the realities and challenges of providing and preserving affordable and rural rental housing.
- The housing production levels within the candidate's area of responsibility or evidence of successful management of properties under the candidate's supervision, as appropriate.
- The candidate has letters of support from current CARH members. Emphasis will be on the quality of the letters versus the quantity.
- The candidate has letters of support from the candidate's colleagues.
- Length and breadth of service to the affordable rural rental housing industry.
- The candidate's skills extend beyond the home state, i.e., the candidate has national appeal.
- The candidate is supportive of CARH's state affiliated organizations, if applicable.

NOMINATION PACKAGE

Nomination packages must include the following:

- Nomination Form
- Detailed explanation of the qualities and attributes of the candidate which makes him/her a valid candidate (see Selection Criteria above).
- Letters of support from current CARH members and the candidate's colleagues.
- Resume detailing the work history of the candidate.

SUBMISSION

Submit the above noted materials to the CARH National Office. Submissions must be received by December 28, 2018.

The candidate selected to receive this prestigious award will be honored during the Awards event during CARH's 2019 Midyear Meeting. In addition, a plaque recognizing all recipients of the Harry L. Tomlinson Award is on display in CARH's national headquarters.
