Exceptional Students
From Rural America!

The Council for Affordable and Rural Housing Scholarship Foundation 2021 Annual Report

Supporting Exceptional Students from Rural America!

Message from the Foundation President, Rodney Corley

Dear Friends,

CARH Scholarship Foundation Scholarships aren't just about the money. While the money is essential to pay for school, being chosen as a scholarship recipient motivates and inspires the students, and gives them confidence that can be life-changing. Time and again our students tell us that because of the Foundation Scholarships, they're committed to making CARH members proud of them. In this Annual Report, you will read about Erica Valdez Daniel, the featured scholarship recipient, who says her Foundation Scholarship not only motivated her to do well in school, it also inspired her to apply for other scholarships and later, for jobs that she previously did not think were within her grasp. Because the CARH Scholarship Foundation Selection Committee showed confidence in her, she felt deserving of other achievements which enabled her to go after her dreams.

Our students have inspired me in turn. I'm inspired by their resolve to meet the many challenges they face, their commitment to a better future for themselves and their families, and their desire to make a difference in the world. It is an honor and privilege for me to work with the CARH Scholarship Foundation and be a part of helping to improve the lives of exceptional students of rural America! As you read about our students on the following pages, I hope you'll be inspired to join me in making a life-changing contribution today!

Sincerely,

Rodney Corley, President
CARH Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors

Message from the CARH Executive Director and Foundation Secretary, Colleen M. Fisher

Dear Friends,

It's been an unprecedented couple of years. The COVID-19 pandemic has drastically disrupted school life and businesses have suffered. But while our lives have changed, the commitment of our students and donors has remained constant. Our students have continued to make great strides in getting an education and pursuing careers that contribute to the betterment of their community and our country. CARH donors have continued to be as generous as they can so that we can maintain these life-changing scholarships. And finally, our board members continue to be the backbone of the foundation. They care about our students and it shows in their leadership and dedication.

I am grateful to all of you for making this important work possible. Thank you for helping to make life better for students in rural America, and thereby, improving life for everyone in rural America! As you plan your giving, please remember our remarkable students and do everything you can to help change someone's life!

Sincerely,

Colleen M. Fisher
Executive Director, CARH
Secretary, CARH Scholarship Foundation

Meet Erica Valdez Daniel of Russellville, Alabama - 2013 CARH Scholarship Recipient

Resident of Regency Plaza Apartments, Russellville, Alabama. Managed by Irby Management.

Erica Valdez Daniel wants to help others with a background like hers. It shows in everything she does—from her education to her volunteer activities to her chosen career. The CARH Scholarship helped her to forge a path to a better life for herself, while lifting up others along the way.

Growing up in Russellville, Alabama, Erica always knew she wanted to go to college, but thought that it wasn't within her grasp. No one in her family had attended college and school was hard for her. But on a college tour of The University of Alabama during her junior year at Tharptown High School, she realized that it might be possible.

Erica and her mom had heard about the Alabama Affordable Housing Association (AAHA) Scholarship Foundation and the National CARH Scholarship Foundation. Erica applied for scholarships with both and the effort paid off with a scholarship from each foundation. Being recognized by both CARH organizations had a profound impact on her. According to Erica, "It changed my life. The CARH Scholarships lit a fire in me! I wanted to be the best in everything!" She wanted to prove to the people who believed in her that she was worthy of their trust. It gave her the confidence to reach out of her comfort zone and pursue all her dreams.

Erica and fellow scholarship recipients receiving their awards at the 2013 CARH Annual Meeting and Legislative Conference

In the fall of 2013, Erica began her college career at Northwest-Shoals Community College near her home. She embraced college life and took advantage of every opportunity offered at the school. She joined numerous clubs, held offices in school organizations and became an ambassador for the college. Her two years there prepared her well for a four-year school. Erica heard about the Presidential Scholarship at Northwest-Shoals, which was awarded to just one student from each of the two campuses, who was transferring to a four-year college or university. Erica says that the confidence she gained from receiving the CARH Scholarships gave her the confidence to apply for the Presidential Scholarship. Previously, she would never have thought she had a chance at such a prestigious award and would not have even thought of applying. Erica was named the scholarship recipient from her campus. It covered her tuition and fees for the next two years at the University of Alabama! Erica earned her B.S. in Human Environmental Sciences in 2017 and graduated with highest honors.

After graduation, Erica went to work as a Family Services Worker for the Community Action Partnership of North Alabama. It was there while working with young adults and their children to obtain services, that Erica felt she could help low-income families find affordable housing. She decided to become a HUD Certified Housing Counselor and joined the Community Action Agency of North Alabama in July 2020, where she worked with families to help them secure safe and affordable housing.

Erica and students at Northwest-Shoals Community College created these red stoles to wear at graduation, signifying they are the first generation in their family to graduate from college, one of many of Erica's ideas implemented to create pride and instill confidence in the students.

After two years as a Housing Counselor, Erica found an opportunity to work with students at her alma mater, Northwest-Shoals Community College, as a Student Support Services Advisor. Erica loves working with the students, many of whom have a similar background as hers. She can relate to them and the challenges they face. She's living her dream of helping others and making a difference, and credits the CARH Scholarships with helping her reach her goals!

Erica is currently working on her master's degree in Student Affairs and higher Education at The University of West Alabama. She lives in her hometown of Russellville, Alabama with her husband of four years, Austin, who is a sod farmer, and their three dogs.

CARH Scholarship Foundation

About the CARH Scholarship Foundation

The CARH Scholarship Foundation awards scholarships annually to deserving exceptional students from rural affordable housing across the United States. The foundation was created in 2005 to promote education and expand opportunities for residents of CARH-member properties. It has grown from awarding two scholarships in 2006 to six scholarships beginning in 2020.

The first two scholarships were named in honor of James L. Poehlman of T&C Associates of Middleton, WI, and Gordon L. Blackwell of GLB Associates of Raleigh, NC. Mr. Poehlman was a founding member of CARH, a board member, Chair of the Owner and Development Committee, Co-Chair for the Aging Portfolio Committee, an Advisory Trustee, and 1998 Member of the Year, before his death in 2004. Mr. Blackwell was a longtime CARH member and former board member. He was also the founder, President, and Chairman of the Regency Housing Group, the largest developer of affordable rental apartments in the United States in 2001. He died in 2006.

The foundation honored Jack Godin, Jr. at his death in 2010 by naming a third scholarship in his memory. Mr. Godin was a founding CARH member and past president, and Vice President of the Southern Development Company, which built, managed, and owned hundreds of affordable housing complexes in rural and urban areas throughout Alabama.

The CRHD Founders Scholarship was added in 2013, honoring the founders of the Council for Rural Housing and Development, the precursor to CARH. The fifth scholarship is named the CARH Scholarship Foundation Scholarship and was added in 2015. The sixth scholarship was added in 2020 and honors the Council for Affordable and Rural Housing. All six scholarships provide $1,500 each semester for up to four years of undergraduate studies or vocational training.
